

Many different kinds of people receive the Word of God. Often, they do not allow it to grow within themselves. The seed is never grows into something healthy and strong.

